Event: Candlelight Vigil and Placard Display

Date: 4th December 2024

Location: UNIMAC Head Office, Nchoubuh, Bamenda

Collaborators: UNIMAC, STRESORS, and GLOWA

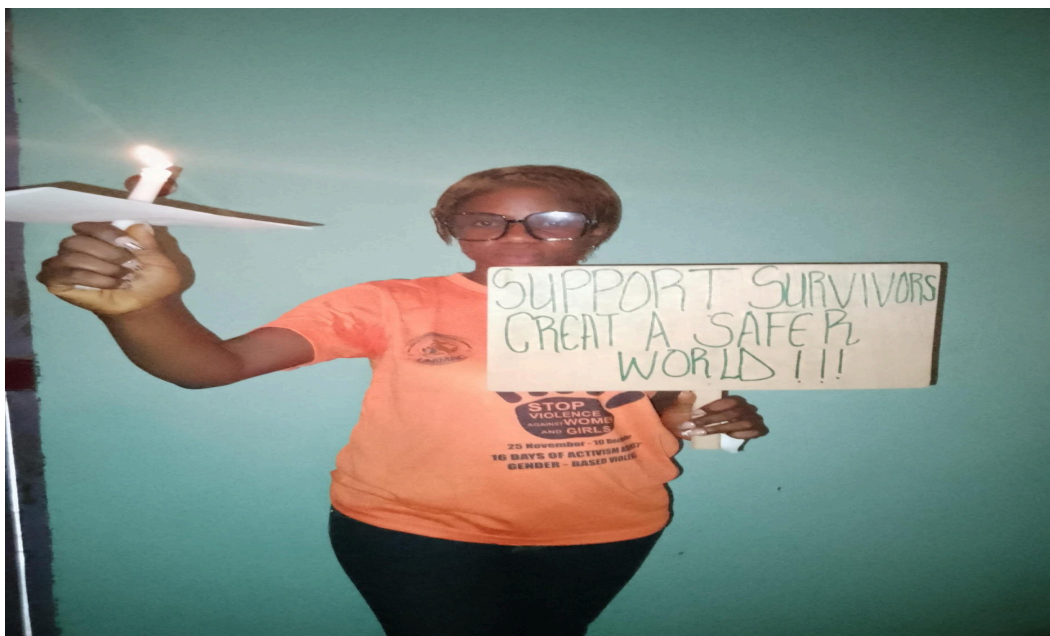

Overview:

On the 4th of December 2024, UNIMAC, in collaboration with STRESORS and GLOWA, organized a candlelight vigil and placard display at the UNIMAC Head Office in Nchoubuh, Bamenda. This solemn event was held as part of the ongoing 16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence (GBV) to honor the memory of those who have tragically lost their lives to GBV and to raise awareness about the urgent need to end this scourge.

Activities:

Candlelight Vigil: Participants lit candles as a symbolic gesture to pay tribute to the victims of GBV. This act also served as a beacon of hope, illuminating the path toward a world free from violence.

Placard Display: Participants held placards with powerful messages, calling for an end to GBV, advocating for justice for victims, and emphasizing the need for collective action.

Significance:

This event served as a reminder of the human cost of GBV and the urgent need for everyone to take action. It was also a moment to reflect on the resilience of survivors and reaffirm our commitment to advocating for their rights and dignity.

Impact:

The event attracted members of the community, who stood in solidarity with the organizers in condemning GBV. The messages displayed and the symbolic lighting of candles left a strong impression on participants, sparking conversations and a collective call for change.

Conclusion:

UNIMAC, STRESORS, and GLOWA reaffirm their commitment to fighting GBV and ensuring a safer and more equitable society for all. Together, we can illuminate the darkness of violence with the light of hope, advocacy, and action.
